Dear Judge Karas:

The Government respectfully writes to inform the Court of the status of the replacement of the defendant's eyeglasses, which were seized at the time of his arrest and held as important evidence in the case. The Government obtained a replacement pair of glasses and provided the replacement glasses to the U.S. Marshals for transport to the defendant this afternoon. Other personal items in the defendant's possession at the time of his arrest were also returned to Ms. Brody this afternoon.
